LifeFlow® Products

It allows providers to rapidly deliver blood, blood components (red blood cells or plasma), and crystalloid and colloid resuscitative fluids to patients requiring volume replacement for hemorrhagic shock or life-threatening bleeding.

*FG5005G, the gray LifeFlow, is the same device as the white LifeFlow, FG5005, with the same functionality and features. Now in gray for EMS.

Note: The LifeFlow tubing sets are pyrogen free and are not made with DEHP plasticizer or natural rubber latex.
